System Requirements For ComiX:

How to Play: Remove The Beeps Boardgame Arena has released their first Kickstarter campaign with the 2 person cooperation game Secret Caverns. With some of my favorite game mechanics they are including random aspects such as a customized amount of coins at the start of each game, a random number of mines at the start of each game, a game where one player becomes the "Villain" while the other plays "The Hero" and a game where two towns have differing timeframes to collect ore. I love that each of these rules are simply called secret in the
