Police say Man Shot in Arm and Leg After Road-Rage Incident.
Thurmont, MD: In mid-March, a man in his 40s was shot in the arm and leg and a second man in his 20s was charged with assault after a road rage incident. Baltimore County Police reports say at 10:50 a.m. on Wednesday, officers responded to a call from an adult male victim who told police he was sitting in his car in the 20200 block of Old Marlboro Pike when a white sport utility vehicle drove through the middle of the road. The SUV allegedly blew its horn and swerved into the victim's vehicle, causing the victim to swerve onto the shoulder and pull off onto Old Marlboro Pike. Police say the SUV followed the victim's vehicle into a parking lot. As the victim tried to leave the lot, the suspect exited his vehicle, identified as 24-year-old Antonio Horne, who allegedly ran toward the victim. Police say a physical altercation ensued, and that's when the suspect allegedly pulled a handgun from his waistband and fired a shot, striking the victim in the left arm and right thigh. A witness told police she witnessed the entire incident and heard three gunshots. The witness said the victim and suspect
