A: You can download "classico" from here: That comes as a few files and the archive format is.zip. But, you have to "unzip" it, which will give you a folder that looks something like this: |-- classico.exe |-- classico.rtf |-- classico.xml |--... So, you have to get a program that can extract rar files and the like and install that on your machine. That is a very easy thing to do with "Rar.exe" from the unzipped folder. Once you have that, you can double click on the "classico.exe" file and it will prompt you to install the software. Once you do that, then re-download the "classico.zip" file and re-download the "classico.exe" file. I am not sure what the difference is between the "classico.exe" file and the ".zip" file, but you have to remember that.rar files are not like zip files, where the files are just concatenated together. That "classico.zip" file has to have the rar format inside it. Personnel with the Halifax Regional Police received a box full of marijuana as a gift on Tuesday. Police are calling it an international "random act of kindness." Investigators learned about the "generous gift" while taking a call from a concerned citizen about illegal activity in the area. Police officers with the SRED at Mill Pond and Buell Road around 6:30 p.m. were alerted to a vehicle that had been left running with a young girl inside. The officers searched the vehicle 4bc0debe42
